Matters around School

Mr Gillan

- At the moment, we are inputting lots of information about our Curriculum onto our website, ready to launch it next week. Families will be able to look at our curriculum overviews, as well as how we plan the learning across the school and how that moves up through the year groups. As you will have seen from individual Class Dojo spaces – and Tapestry – our teachers try very hard to keep you abreast of our latest learning and YOU also send back the most brilliant posts in your own portfolios! I am trying to find a little more time in my working week to sit, read and comment more on these posts, as they are such an important feature of our communication together.
- Thanks to Year 4, this week, where I got the chance to lead some sessions in maths and writing, this week. I thoroughly enjoyed their focus, creativity and standards in their books. Looking after your book is absolutely crucial to us, as it is your working document showing everything that you do at school. They weren't just trying to impress the Head! I could tell it was their usual practice. Special mention to Brody!
- DATES! Below is a list of dates and teachers will be given more details about these events in letters coming out. I know Key Stage 1 Nativity has a letter being distributed regarding ticketing and timings and this will be the same for key Stage 2 Carols, which will be held at St Mary's Church for the first time in a number of years. Our choir is practicing hard and are very excited to be singing for families at the Christmas Fair!
- On Friday 9th December, Karen Sancto will be visiting school. Karen is a Diocese advisor and former Headteacher. She will be presenting us with a plaque to celebrate our 150th birthday! More details about how we will celebrate this in next week's newsletter.
- A huge thanks to Julie Kimber from the Seven Sowers Benefice for supporting our Collective Worships with her messages for HOPE in our latest session. They really are friends of the school and we will be inviting them to all of our celebrations leading up to Christmas.

Safeguarding

Mr Gillan

- Over the next few months, we will be having some works around school to install hand rails in key places. This will help pupils stay to the paths –

Safer online searching – it creates search lists from educational sites only. Please do give it a go at home, as it should bring up some very interesting sites for home projects / research.

Bible Thought:

"You welcome me as an honoured guest and fill my cup to the brim."

We are a proud part of the Diocese of Bath and Wells:

especially on any sloped areas – and will safeguard pupils around our school environment.

- Shorter days have an impact on our After School events, meaning we are extra vigilant at pick-ups, especially a 4:30pm when it is quite dark! If anyone else is picking up your child on your behalf, please do let us know in advance.
