

I can understand how to use possessive apostrophes for singular nouns.

Change these sentences to show possession using an apostrophe.

1. The reindeer belonging to Santa flew through the air.

2. The harp belonging to the giant sang beautifully.

3. The cauldron belonging to the witch boiled and bubbled.

4. The tail belonging to the dog wagged.

5. The wheel belonging to the car had a puncture.

6. The toys belonging to the child were scattered on the floor.

Can you answer these questions in full sentences to show singular noun possession?

Example:

Q: Whose hair was as black as coal?

A: Snow White's hair was as black as coal.

1. Whose bandages were very old and dusty?

2. Whose teeth are extremely sharp?

3. Whose magic wand sparkled?

4. Whose crown sparkled with precious jewels?
